

When small businesses need expert HR advice to run smoothly and avoid legal penalties, they contact:

Providing small businesses with the answers to the HR challenges they face each day.

Small businesses face real and costly risks when they deal with employee issues. Every year millions of dollars are assessed in legal penalties against organizations that are unaware of the way to correctly handle difficult situations.

HR Solutions: On-Call provides small businesses (of under 40 employees) with access to a team of professionals that have expertise managing diverse human resource issues for local, regional and national organizations. HR Solutions: On-Call keeps business owners in compliance with regulatory issues and helps them deal with employees that are difficult, troublesome, and who create workplace problems.

With over 35 years of expertise helping city governments, corporations, medical offices, and health departments with HR matters, HR Solutions: On-Call is the go-to source for advice that will improve work environments and help its clients stay in compliance with the myriad of regulations.

To Learn More, Go To www.hrsolutionsoncall.com